Statement Read by TT-O to the 2 senate Banking and Currency Committee. The private banker is a. member of a profession which* has been practiced since the Middle Ages. In the process* of time there has grown up a code of professional ethics and cus-toms, the observance of which d12-pend his reputation, his fortune and his usefulness to the community in-which he works. Some private bankers, as indeed is the case in some of the other professions, are not ob-servant of this code as they should be, but if, in the exercise of his d12 profession, the private banker disre-gards this code, which could never be expressed in legislation, but has a fore* far greater than any law, he will sacri-fice his credit. This credit is his most valuable pos-session.	True		By J.p. Morgan,	CIB 191733,CIB 191734,CIB 191735,CIB 191736,CIB 191737,CIB 191738,CIB 191739
